

An Invitation from the NHREA

What is the NHREA?

The New Hampshire Retired Educators Association (NHREA) is an organization open to all retired educators whether they are teachers, nurses, administrators, therapists, or other educational support professionals. It was founded in 1952 to promote the economic, social, and professional welfare of its retirees.

What we do for our members

- ◆ Support for legislation to protect and improve retirement benefits of educators.
- ◆ We work with other retirement groups to safeguard and enhance the welfare and interests of our members.
- ◆ Seek out and share information of value to our retirees.
- ◆ Encouraging membership and participation in local NHREA units
- ◆ Biannual newsletters keep our members informed; web-site and Facebook page.
- ◆ Liaison with NEA-New Hampshire, AFT, AARP-NH, and the New Hampshire Retirement Security Coalition.
